OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL, ZUNHEBOTO GOVT. COLLEGE
ZUNHEBOTO : NAGALAND

RESERVATION POLICY

The state of Nagaland, located in the North-eastern part of the country, is inhabited by the Nagas belonging to the Scheduled Tribe (ST) category. Further, Zunheboto district is an interior, hilly area as such the district is inhabited mostly by the indigenous tribal people. In this regard, the state Government has not come out with a definite reservation policy for admission of students in the institutions of higher education in the state. However, the Department of Higher Education, Nagaland, Kohima, has tacitly provided autonomy to colleges to make their own policy for category students for admission in colleges.

As per the reservation policy of seats made by the College internally, 91% of seats is allotted for ST category who are the indigenous people of this state.

The seats reserved for the differently abled (Divyangjan) are not treated as part of the statutory reservations but from general/respective category only.
